

To the doctoral candidates
at University of Freiburg

20.02.2025

Call for Applications: DocLounge Workstations

Dear PhD students,

The Doctoral Candidate Representation (Gemeinsamer Arbeitsausschuss der Doktorand:innenkonvente; GAA) of the University of Freiburg offers workstations for PhD-students in Erbprinzenstr. 12, first floor, starting 20.02.2025. The deadline for the application is 28.03.2025. The workstation will be given to PhD-students, to whom no workstation is provided at the university, and which have unsuitable working conditions or no possibility to work at home.

Application requirements:

PhD students at the University of Freiburg may apply if the following criteria are met:

- No workstation is provided by the department chair/supervisor
- The PhD-student may not be employed at the University of Freiburg (e.g. research associate) at the same time

Selection criteria:

1. PhD-Student status (scholarship etc.)
2. Individual situation based on the following:
 - Family circumstances
 - State of the dissertation
 - Reason why PhD student cannot work from home
3. Future involvement in the DocLounge: What future position could you imagine? (Speaker, IT-, Infrastructure-, Kitchen-, Financial-Supervisor)

Documents to be submitted:

- Acceptance or matriculation certificate as PhD student
- Confirmation of the supervisor/the professor that no workstation can be provided by the chair of the faculty (Please complete the enclosed attachment!).
- Confirmation of the supervisor/the PhD-student, that the applicant is not employed at the university (Please complete the enclosed attachment).
- Document, in which you describe your family situation, the state of your dissertation and your current workstation. Give a justification for why a desk is needed and why it is not possible for you to work from home. Describe which position you could imagine to take in DocLounge.
